

Don't Burn All The Bridges

Ivo Andric

(translated from Bosnian / Serbian / Croatian)

Don't burn all the bridges, you might return.
You're no bird or bee with wings to flaunt,
Without bridges it is useless to yearn,
Useless to comprehend, useless to want.
Don't burn all the bridges, you might return.
Between your heart and me, leave at least one intact
In solitude the mistake is easier to discern,
Those memories may yet impel you to come back...
